

Project Data Sheet

Client: Confidential.

Contract Value: Confidential.

Description: Haycock & Hague (Pipework) Ltd were responsible for the Project management, design, specification and installation of vessels, condensers and associated pumps and for the design, fabrication and installation of all associated pipework.

Haycock & Hague (Pipework) Ltd engineering personnel were also responsible for the design, specification and installation of all associated electrical and instrumentation works, complete with the management of the configuration of the process control system.

The installation was completed within an existing operating plant with the new system integrated with a minimum of plant shutdown and disruption.